Thank you, Megan. Jist is fine with me. If it's okay, I would like to invited Joanne Kumamoto, who co-chairs our BID and is well versed in transportation issues.

Hi Everyone,

Just confirming the meeting for this Friday(3/31) at 8:30am. Would everyone be able to meet at Jist Cafe on Judge Aiso St.? If anyone has any other suggestions then feel free to throw it out there.

Thanks!

We had the presentation on March 15. Our experience is the same as Miguel's. The Little Tokyo BID took no action but the questions asked by stakeholders revealed they are skeptical mainly because they've been through years of disruptions, unfulfilled mitigations, street closures, etc.

Estela,

The presenters explained that they were in the "Project Awareness Stage" of their project. They gave an overview and asked community members to start thinking about what alignment might make the most sense. They said they would come back later with more details. No action was taken. Let me know if you need any more information.

Best,

Everyone, Metro is doing their presentation to our BID board on Tuesday. Didn't they already do Little Tokyo and Arts? If so, did you guys listen and take no action OR did your Boards provide specific feedback/recommendations? It would be helpful for me to know as we head into our conversation with them on Tuesday.

Thanks.

And I can do 3/31 at 8:30.

Good morning,

Our office would like to set up a meeting with all of you to discuss the West Santa Ana Branch Corridor. We would just like to better understand what everyone's opinion is on this matter and to gain your input so we can all be on the same page.

Is everyone available to meet on Thursday, 3/30 at 4pm at City Hall?

Please let me know.
